

1st announcement

Save the date!

30th November – 1st December 2017

INSA Lyon, France

Colombian - French Conference on Urban Water Systems

An event of the Colombia France Year 2017 organised by Laboratory DEEP , INSA Lyon in partnership with Pontificia Universidad Javeriana, Bogota

Final programme under preparation

Seven Colombian speakers: see next page.

Conference topics:

urban drainage, rainwater harvesting, stormwater management, flood risks, drinking water networks, micropollutants, treatment, modelling, monitoring.

Seven Colombian speakers:

Andrés Torres Pontificia Universidad Javeriana, Bogota
Stormwater harvesting at Pontificia Universidad Javeriana

Juan Pablo Rodríguez Universidad de Los Andes, Bogota
Towards sustainable urban drainage systems planning - Experiences from Bogotá

Edgar Villarreal Universidad Nacional de Colombia, Bogota
Assessing the potentiality of rainwater harvesting systems in Bogotá

Néstor Mancipe Universidad de La Salle, Bogota
Urban flash flood warning system using a rainfall-runoff model integrated to a smart wireless sensor network

Humberto Avila Universidad del Norte, Barranquilla
Flood risk management in urban areas by using SUDS and a reactive early warning system: Case study in Barranquilla

Jaime Lara Pontificia Universidad Javeriana, Bogota
Endocrine disruptor chemicals in the urban water cycle of Bogota

Luz Angela Otero * Empresas Municipales, Cali
Drinking water systems in Cali*

* to be confirmed

Final programme and registration form available soon on <http://deep.insa-lyon.fr/>

